O R D E R

The revision petitioner is the accused who was found guilty of the offences under sections 143, 147, 448 and 427 of the Indian Penal Code and released on probation under section 4(1) of the Probation of Offences Act. The findings are concurrent and on a consideration of the decisions of the courts below I find no reason to interfere. PWs 1 and 2 the occurrence witnesses have deposed as to the identity of the accused. The appellate court has observed that the order issued is the most lenient one. In the circumstances, the Crl. R.P is dismissed in limine.

K.R. UDAYABHANU, JUDGE.
